

Greater Midwest Baseball 2012 CABA World Series Qualifiers

During 2012 GMB will host 3 CABA Baseball World Series Qualifiers and the First ever CABA Baseball Mo/Il Bi-State Championship. CABA is a National Sanctioning Body with heavy ties in the Greater Midwest Region. CABA host World Series in sites such as East Cobb and Reno, Nevada.

The Continental Amateur Baseball Association launched the initial season in 1984 with the vision of starting a new more user-friendly youth baseball organization that would provide more teams the opportunity to participate at the national level.

C.A.B.A. was the innovator in providing national level events for single age levels 9-18. In addition, the C.A.B.A. initiated round robin play leading to a double elimination championship bracket. These seem almost standard procedure in today's youth baseball world, but in 1984, it was a revolution!

Teams from every state, along with Puerto Rico, Panama, Guam, Japan, Canada, Mexico, Brazil and the Dominican have participated in C.A.B.A. World Series events.

CABA holds World Series qualifying tournaments in most all states and has a heavy population of teams in the Greater Midwest Area. We are sure to see some of these team in the GMB events during the 2012 season.

Be sure to play in the GMB - CABA 2012 events and Get Your Team Qualified For A 2012 CABA World Series or National Championship.
